

Austin American-Statesman
statesman.com

Metro & State Briefing

Roundup nets nearly 200 on felony charges

Compiled from staff and wire reports
Tuesday, October 26, 2004

CENTRAL TEXAS DIGEST

WARRANT ROUNDUP

Almost 200 suspects nabbed

About a dozen law enforcement agencies arrested almost 200 people on outstanding felony charges during a warrant roundup.

Operation Slam Dunk 2004, a 90-day initiative organized by the San Antonio Area Fugitive Enforcement Task Force, ended Monday, said Roger Wade, a Travis County sheriff's spokesman.

Some of the participating agencies included the Travis sheriff's office, the U.S. Marshals Service and the Lockhart Police Department. Officers researched more than 500 felony warrants.